What We Are Looking For:

We are looking for family-friendly, larger than life, energetic, and animated personalities who are GREAT with kids and can play original characters like pirates, knights, fairies, explorers, Halloween witches, or princesses in person.

Our improv-based parties are outlined but not scripted, meaning that you need to be very good at staying in character for up to 1.5 hours with awesome listening skills to be able to react to kids' questions. The attached script is just to see if you can be silly, larger than life, and convey a realistic kid's character.

If you know of a person who would also be a good fit for this role you can also send them these directions to self-submit. Think Disney Cruise Lines, cartoon, or Parade personalities. Bid, bold, happy, interactive, energetic, and FUN. We've yet to see anyone go too over the top yet!

PART 1: ABOUT YOU!

Please speak directly to the camera as if it were a person. Please introduce yourself, say what city (or portion of LA) you are currently living in, and talk about your experience working with children between the ages of 3-10.

Be sure to include this information so that we can reach out:

- Your name
- Your phone number
- Your email address

PART 2: CHARACTER ON CAMERA WORK:

Please address the camera as if it were at a birthday party in front of a group of kids around ages 3-7. You can read off sides if they are taped behind the camera if needed. Feel free to be creative and go big and wild while keeping this kid-friendly. We want to see that you can be entertaining, not just read a script!
